FOREWORD

The Solana community has historically been influenced by significant institutional investment, which often focuses on quick profits rather than the needs of users and developers who are essential to the ecosystem's growth. As a result, Solana has become vulnerable to exploitation, with some speculators benefiting from retail transactions. Despite these challenges, the Solana community demonstrates remarkable resilience, and the ecosystem continues to thrive.

AMIER MANIFESTO

At the height of the NFT boom, these digital assets were everywhere. They gained immense popularity on social media, appeared on talk shows, and featured in music videos. Brands and creators jumped on the trend, launching their own NFTs, and while not all were commercially successful, some individuals made significant profits. In a striking example, one person even burned a $10 million Frida Kahlo painting, believing it would increase in value in the metaverse.

ABOUT AMI

Ami is an AI-driven memecoin focused on building a geek community around AI. Serving as the community token for the entire network, it integrates deeply with various top-tier DApps on Solana. Unlike tokens sold at high prices, Ami is distributed free to those who significantly contribute to the ecosystem. Ami is committed to being a true community token for the Solana network, held by the community members who actively drive its development, rather than by institutional investors. Ami was created to dismantle monopolies and empower ordinary users who actively contribute to the network's growth. The vision behind Ami is guided by its early core contributors, who are dedicated to ensuring the long-term success of this authentic community token within the Solana network.

Ami is dedicated to being a genuine community token for the Solana network. It will not be controlled by institutional investors instead be held by community members who actively contribute to the network's growth.

Specifically, 40% of Amier's tokens will be airdropped to NFT holders who participate early in the Amier network, as well as to developers pushing technical innovation. These contributors are committed to fostering ongoing innovation within the ecosystem, regardless of market fluctuations.

The remaining tokens will be used to support long-term community incentives, ensuring the ongoing success of the Amier ecosystem. These funds will be allocated to the Amier DAO as initial start-up capital and reserved for future technical development and user incentive programs to promote widespread Amier adoption.
